SHOW UP proudly introduces newly improved ONE DROP KANDY. ONE DROP KANDY contains high brilliance mica for vivid finish, and allows you the painter to achieve intense color without building much paint unlike traditional KANDY. ONE DROP KANDY was developed in easy two ways for hobby use. White base for light & bright Kandy tone. Black base for darker & chic Kandy tone. *In case your plastic model material is black or white, you may paint it without base coat.

Vpearls

Vpearls

4 color 15ml Micro bottle series

Artificially synthesized titanium content made it possible to produce crisp clean pearl effect from any angle unlike any other pearls on the market.
No traditional yellowishness due to silica flake contents. Base Color(soul grey or air white) → Vpearl → Topcoat Clear

Hobby 1K Urethane Surfacer

Unlike lacquer surfacer, due to urethane surfacer coating film tends to be thick, when the paint is applied on such as plastic models this helps to prevent solvent absorption into the primer. Moreover, dry time can be shortened because of its 1K nature and improves the adhesion between the substrate and the base coat so it is even paintable without sanding.

180g / My bottle 50g

Hobby Fast-drying Primer

This 1K multi-purpose primer works well for targeting tiny surface that's hard to prepare.
This product helps adhere the paint on poly-carbonated material and also prevents from peeling off caused by not enough preps.
